Hemlock: The Collected Mysteries: Volume I (Volume 1) Thomas D. Taylor

Detective James Hemlock used to think Hell and Earth were two separate places, but then his investigations uncovered a worldwide cult the likes of which no sane man or woman had ever before seen. Its members have infiltrated our universities, our militaries, our governments, and the planet's biggest corporations. And deep beneath the ground, in dim-litten grottos and catacombs, Hemlock discovers that cannibalism, mass-murder, and demon worship are just some of the rites and rituals that this gruesome and deranged organization uses to try to bring on the apocalypse. Hemlock -one lone man- may be all that stands between sanity and the final destruction of the world. WARNING: This book is not for the faint-hearted. Author Thomas D. Taylor doesn't show his characters any mercy, and he won't show YOU any mercy, either. 167,500 words.
