The Glass Girls (Missing In Action Book 1) Eric Scott Johnston

He was having strange dreams, and they say that's why he did it.

Most call him a traitor. Others say he went crazy after being injured and even fewer say his act was one of true compassion. But no one can say what happened to him after he wandered into the jungles of Cambodia.

Forty-two years later, the people who encountered this soldier in the depths of the jungle begin to emerge and weave together a remarkable story of the past and present taking the reader from the streets of Cologne, Germany to the ancient temples of Cambodia on a quest to find a soldiers grave, and with it, the truth.
