The Warner Bros. Story: The Complete History of Hollywood's Great Studio Every Warner Bros. Feature Film Described and Illustrated Clive Hirschhorn

Warner Bros. has been one of the foremost Hollywood studios for most of the movie industry's history... the company's first feature film was released in the pioneer days of 1918. This fascinating book charts the story of incredible detail, from the tentative beginnings to the present. It is the definitive record... every feature film that the studio made or distributed in the U.S. is described and illustrated.

There are over 1800 photographs in this superb collection, many of them published here for the first time. Warner Bros. films include many of the most exciting and entertaining ever made.. The Jazz Singer, Casablanca, Rebel Without a Cause, Woodstock, Blazing Saddles, Clockwork Orange, All the President's Men, and Superman to name only a few. They are all here.
