Amber and Seth are on their way to college. Some of their friends from home are staying behind, but they are excited about their new journey and what awaits them during their freshman year at Lifegate.

Kerri is also excited, but some unsettled feelings in the first few weeks seem to be plaguing her for no apparent reason. Among other things, she seeks out some new friendships and isn't disappointed by them. Nor is she greatly opposed to a surprising turn of events she never saw coming.

Chad and Jessica begin to discover a special friendship neither of them are certain they are ready for, but will God's faithfulness to restore them not only be real but take them into a deeper love than they ever imagined? And how will their friends cope with the trials and celebrate the joy they experience during this unique time of life?
