History of Montana: From Wilderness to Statehood (Second Edition) James McClellan; Edited By Merrill G. Burlingame Hamilton

From the dust jacket: "Much of this colorful and richly-informed material on Montana territorial development is unavailable elsewhere. And the reader-student or layman-finds the grass-roots approach exciting. He gets the feeling very shortly that he too was there, advancing with Meriwether Lewis and William Clark to be the first white men of record upon the soil of the future Montana; or routing out crime with the Vigilantes and finding justice in the famous 'hangman's tree'."
