Infocom's DOS-based Return to Zork was one of the most widely-owned games of the early 1990's. Unlike today's hack, slash, and annihilate extravaganzas, Return to Zork required players to explore, map, and solve puzzles--emphasizing thinking over dexterity. It was the first graphic (rather than text) Zork adventure. Return to Zork Adventurer's Guide: Twentieth Anniversary Edition is a reprint of the best-selling book originally published in 1993/1994 by Prima Publishing.

Covering both the CD- and floppy-based editions of the game, this guide includes:

- Screenshots that illustrate key game elements and puzzles
- Detailed play maps
- Multiple levels of hints that provide just the help you need without spoiling the game
- A complete game walkthrough

Whether you're a collector of game memorabilia, want to improve your previous score, didn't got around to playing the game way back when, or recently purchased a copy (yes, it's still for sale), you'll want this definitive guide!
