Emergency Room Caroline B. Cooney

College freshmen Seth and Diana volunteer in an emergency room to learn how to save lives—and along the way, they learn to live

Seth volunteers at City Hospital to get first-hand experience with emergency medicine—and get comfortable with blood and trauma before attending medical school, so he'll have an edge over the competition. Diana volunteers in the inner-city ER to save the world, one patient at a time. If she gets to show up arrogant Seth too, so much the better. The one thing these two college freshmen share is a desire to be a part of the ER's action. Tonight, hour by hour and minute by minute, they will get their wish as they confront a student with a gunshot wound, the victim of a gruesome motorcycle accident, and a kidnapping gone horribly awry. Their adrenaline-fueled night will alter the course of Seth and Diana's lives—and the lives of everyone in the emergency room—forever.
