The Washington, D.C. based novel entitled "Priceless" can be viewed as an urban story similar to the hit television series Scandal. The characters undergo several life changing events while facing negative and positive consequences. The characters are involved in issues such as drug distribution, prostitution, substance abuse, HIV, drug abuse, religion, war, homosexuality, redemption, and deliverance within the urban neighborhoods of the Washington D.C. Metropolitan area. Priceless is edgy and controversial, yet an appropriate tool for guiding young African American men and women in our society.
