Where the Broken Lie Derek Rempfer

"Rempfer's characters are believable and he artfully places the reader in Tucker's skin. His prose is often poetically descriptive even as it pulls the reader from one page to the next, anxious to know more. As the clues add up, Rempfer skillfully points us one way and then another until it seems the mystery is solved. But it isn't – and the big reveal is totally unexpected. Although this is a satisfying page-turner, don't be tempted to rush through it without savoring some of the wonderful writing."

- Literary Fiction Book Review

"Whether you're from Illinois or Idaho or wherever, I'm guessing you'll recall the whispered secrets of your hometown—and see how Tucker handles the truth of who killed his first love. I think you'll become as engrossed with the story as I did."

—Retired LA Times book critic David Kinchen

Who killed Katie Cooper?

When Tucker returns to his hometown of Willow Grove to grieve the death of his infant son, memories of the murder of Katie, his childhood sweetheart, are ignited. In spite of her death being blamed on a mentally challenged drifter known as Slim Jim, Tucker wonders if the real killer is still out there. With new clues arriving through anonymous letters left at the graveyard, Tucker is certain that Katie's death is truly unsolved. While coming to terms with the loss of his son, Tucker also seeks truth. But the real killer may be out there, willing to kill again to protect a dark secret.

Where The Broken Lie shines a spotlight on small-town secrets, faith, fear, love and loss in this enigmatic journey into the scarred hearts left behind.
